Down far below the brute.

Ot body and of mind. It cannot be in spitting o'er The things that lay around. And making puddles on the floor-But where can it be found.

It cannot be in the great abuse

Nowhere: there's none-'tis but a cheat, A practice you've got in. And all of you, I do entreat, To quit that mighty sin. A sin that blasts the human mind. And racks the human frame. And there's no excuse of any kind

Why you in it remain. Oh! then come out, and with open voice Its filthiness proclaim; Just quit its use and you'll rejoice, And ne'er ask back ugain. Some say they would, if they only could.

Still never will they try it, But set it down as understood That their appetite can't deny it Now those that have not enough command -

O'er their now tite to quit it: To see their lacking does not demand A scientific errtic.

But I still hope the time will be When all the human race, Shall from this fifthy practice flee, Which we should call disgrace.

A Fragment.

BY HERINEIGH BLINE Far on the dim herrzon, As in a land of dreams, Rises a white-towered city, Fading 'midst sunset gleams

The evening breeze is wreathing The water where I float; And insolemn measure, the sailor, Keeps time as he rows my boat. Once more the sunlight flashes In a wondrous glory round, And lights up the foaming water. Where she I love was drowned.

Bautiful Calc.

[From the Fund Du Lac Journal.] MEADOWDALE: A STORY OF THE REVOLUTION.

BY VAN B. SMEAD. (CONTINUED) CHAPTER XIII A TRUE PRIEND-THE RESCUE.

It was morning again at Meadowdale -That night of charrin and ill broading to its regai throne upon the cassing eve. Breakfast was over-the Major was enjoying his morning stroil, and Mrs. Dawson and her piece were alone. A long silence be sacrified to this man!" "Wonid that I dare to hope!"

accomplished, if we but place full confidence in that little word hope! The strongest hearts are made to bow beneath its in fluence-the most obstinate difficulties, gradually dissolve before it like tiny snow flakes before the sun. Hope, perseverance and a just cause are worlds in an emergeacy courteous towards me and I have at times thought he would pause in his course and lake. reflect upon the unhappiness he would bring upon a person who never wronged him in "This is but a vain delusion. Captain ing part through policy. He is well aware patriots who had styled themselves the that any precipitancy would lower him in "Light Brigade."

Mrs. Dawson took up a piece of embroidery, telligence and bravery. The clder of the and was apparently very busy in forming a figure upon its delicate surface. The Major yet every article of his wardrobe sat with a figure upon its delicate surface. You are to discovered to the window, and piece of embroidery, telligence and bravery. The clder of the to the task, my heart will not falter in the emergency."

Slowly at first, but gradually it deepened, and soon a few faint stars followed the department of the figure upon its delicate surface. The Major yet every article of his wardrobe sat with a figure upon its delicate surface. The major yet of the figure upon its delicate surface. The Major yet every article of his wardrobe sat with a figure upon its delicate surface.

fully towards the opposite shore. Yet her who never knew fear. The other man wore otherwise, I would not pretend to dictate thoughts would revert to the gloomy scenes the military undress of an American Lieu-you-your clearness of perception will guide any own eyes!" that surrounded her-the mysterious under-tenant. They had but just been announced, you aright. taking of Henry, and the harshness of her and had entered the tent at the moment we uncle; and amid these she had become un- choose for our description. conscious of events passing around. A gaie Wayne advanced courteously forward,

The frail bark, unable to withstand such Brigade!" her reach. A wild tear thrilled through the homely quarters." ment a strong arm was thrown around her soon seated in friendly tete a tete together. waist, and still insensible, she was placed

MT CHROMGI

D THOBURN EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.]

HE WHO LOVES BOT HIS COUNTRY CAN HAVE NOTHING!

ITERMS $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

NEW SERIES, VOL. I, NO 50.1

ST. CLAIRSVILLE OHIO THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1857

her life coolly took the padd'e and guided length sail Wayne, "to ask a favor."

curious to estch the word, but contented portunity to pass by where I had the power the adventurer's shoulders. himself by calmly watching the symptoms of aiding you."

and in a low tone exclaimed.

ed Henry of the plot against his life. vigilence with enem*. I wish you to as"Cannot the white maiden remember sist me in dialema."

vigilence with enem*. I wish you to as"Ha, ha! well Will, I wouldn't like to answer that question!" laughingly returned "Cannot the white maiden remember sist me in dialema."

"You can rely upon my full co-operation a clear manly voice that was recognized by ou, Willinasse to whom I am indebted for the occasion." the preservation of my life."

ing the pattles of his chief!"

played.

mistaken." "Who is it!"

den's friends at Meadowdule ido not sympa-

"So they call me-yet I hope my young him as my friend," thread with not consider me as ungenerous "His name is Henry Raymond—but do Robinson.

CHAPTER XIV.

THE MISSION. Back one more would we conduct our them without a few words descriptive.

A quick step in the next room warned Both were tall, well formed, and muscular.

James, the leader of the renowned James' fury, carcened suddenly to one side and the You are sir, and I am sure that I have convolsive attempt was made to reach the eral Wayne, the bravest of the brave. I her reach. A wild lear thristed through the homely quarters."

Namy thanks, my friend. Allow me to word "Henry" trembled upon her lips, but make you acquainted with a young comrade word "the wife of a certain gentleman, in a state the wife of a certain gentleman, in a state the wife of a certain gentleman, in a state that the wife of a certain gentleman, in a state that the wife of a certain gentleman, in a state that the wife of a certain gentleman, in a state that the wife of a certain gentleman. the waters only heard her voice, and drowned of mine; Lieutenate Wilder-he has been Quite a crowd were gathered around the in-yet the sentence ere it was uttered. She had with us but a short time, yet, in his brief not seen a dark form upon the shore without hesitation plunge among the billows, and to win a Lieutenant's commission, which I a noble breast battled manfully with the am proud to say, has not been given amiss." waves, drawing nearer and nearer to the The hospitable brigadesman welcomed der exclaimed; place-yet, thus it was. She arose to the the young officer in a cordial manner, and surface of the water again, and at that mo- ordering refreshments, the company were "Bill Sticker, sir."

in her boat, while the strange rescuer of "I have sought you out, Colonel," at the vessel to the shore. This done, he "You have but to speak it, and if it lies in caught his burthen in his arms and leaping my power, I will grant it with the greatest around."

"Allow me to disperse all modesty upon most simple manner conceivable. his patients recovery.

"Allow me to disperse all modesty upon most simple manner conceivable.

Gradually a show of life presented itself the point by adding that I shall feel a pride "You must leave," said the soldier in on the features of our heroine-a struggle, in complying with any request you may kinder tone, who now could see he had a and then a faint whisper came from her think fit to offer-indeed, I should feel that half fool to deal with; yet accompanying colorless lips. The watcher did not seem I labored under your displeasure were an op- his words with laying a heavy grass upon of returning life. Slowly the large lustrous "Upon that consideration then, I will slowly settling kimself to an easy sitting eyes opened, and wandering around met the ground arms and push shead with a bold posture upon the ground. form of her preserver-but all remembrance front. You must know that at present I This indeed was a "sticker" and so the't of the past was a blank. She gazed upon have but very few men under my charge- the puzzled party, as they cast doubting him in a half inquiring add terrified manner they are mostly sea-men, traders and desert looks at each other. "Where am I-who are you! .O, tell me aroused in the moment of necessity to the Dunham, now for the first taking part in the "Where am I—who are your 25, ten me painful and humiliating fact that I have not matter.

"My fair young triend is forgetful—fer one mounts neer or scout among the whole of my men. I have a dangerous adventure, and braced against a tree, where he leaned, what has occurred, and why I am in this succeed in, and I am well aware that it would careless of what was passing around. be folly to entrust it to any other than a "Are you a fool or a rascal!" exclaimed

This person we have heretofore spoken backwoodsman, or one perfectly acquainted the impetuous Danham, unable to restrain of-it was the same friendly warrior who with the country and mountains, and who, his impatience, which was fast getting the had met the lovers upon the beach and warn- if discovered and jursued, could escape the better of him.

ing, but a strong arm came to her assistance and aid-but would you inform me of the every one of the group. and bore her safely away from danger!" nature of the mission you wish performed! "Harry Raymond! what in the deuce are "Ah, ves-I remember. Then it was I might be better able to select a man lit for you doing in that rig!"

+No: so-it was the Great Spirit who I should make you my confident. I have he drew Dunham aside and continued: "Nay," continued the warrior, "but this tempt proved a failure-my emissary was no ted nothing necessary to the accomplish would be a death-blow to him and an his path. "The Indian has an informer that is never embrassment to us. I require a man of Hardly had the form of Henry Raymond culate her nature. It they could but know an enterprise I would wager my live!"

"You are a strange being, Willihasse!" mark such a man in my memory and know mingled with the men without his absence as I am strange. I am her friend, and would not think that he is the only man of that. The harmless excitement which Henry citement to the nace had slowly passed as I am strange. I am her friend, and would not think that he is the only man of that are had slowly passed as I am strange. I am her friend, and would not think that he is the only man of that a stamp I can command—there are many about was thought less by brought others with me that are his equal, but they about was the means of drawing him near shadow y has in the for west which was but "I should be grateful indeed to have such that are his equal, but they about was the means of drawing him near shadow y has in the for west which was but "I should be grateful indeed to have such that are his equal, but they are not the same of th his una ked aid proves a welcome friend. there, and after waiting a few moments, they with an uninteresting eye but after our h reassured by the recollection of his con- entered the tent, a missive was despatched towards the sent y, and with a patronizing fident tone and southing words, descended to our hero inviting him to attend upon his smile and word, a tempted to pass.

After the appearance of the young brigadesman, one glance was sufficient to convince the sanguine Wayne that his man was well chosen, and after Henry had been presented with but doffed and respectful air

"There is a very daring and difficult un-them that Major Dawson was approaching and their high, full foreheads, and large cause of Liberty could ask, that I would not tions of the tory spy, and night ca e on. them that Major Dawson was approaching and their nigh, ithi followed, and their night cause of Liberty could ask, that I would not thouse of the tory spy, and night cause of the proud to attempt. If you think me equal Slowly at first, but gradually it deepened,

"Then success is sure. You are to distray to the surrounding gloom. entered the room, and with a half feigned laugh, chided his niece upon her unusual pair of we'll fitting breeches reached to his "I will do it."

side gained the place where her boat moored. to him a nobler and better name in his own tablets. Do not lorget these peculiarities, conversation with his accomplice, Tom Milboth in the grasp of the hand, in speaking ler. fin a lew moments she was seated in her it was General traying, or an in the grasp of the nand, in speaking and with a few easy strokes ploits had won for him, from his superiors and you will find no trouble with him. In regard to the manner of proceeding questioned Tom, in a half skeptical tone.

Henry hastily penciled down the address to nab him!" their presence, and after a little more conhad suddenly sprung up, and the little boat and in a clear, manly voice said:—
was being tossed wildly upon the plunging "I presume I am speaking to Colonel mounted their steeds a waiting them peed to be to be the plunging of the plunging to be the plunging of the plunging to be mounted their steeds, awaiting them near. | Tom mused for a few moments and took their way slowly down the moun- deeply, but at length said:-

Shortly after the departure of the two that, for it's too late-and 'twould hardly do odcupant was thrown into the water. A the honor of being addressed by Major Gen- American officers, there was an unusual to trust to fine in him as he comes along boat, but it had drifted 'several feet beyond am proud to welcome you, General, to our had suddenly appeared in their camp, yet in The only way I can think of, is to chase truder, who seemed to be a happy nonde- The tory uttered this last expression with a degree of fierce curiosity, a by-stan- perpetrated.

"Who the devil are you!" "How did you get here!"

"Through the woods," leered the oddity. "What do you want?" "I dunno-I cam to take a kind o'look lightly to the bank placed her upon a seat within her own arbour, and taking one opposite, carelessly, yet confidently awaited help feeling a hesitation in presenting it."

"You'll take a bullet if you don't make yourself scarce!"
help feeling a hesitation in presenting it."

"Mebby so." replied Mr. Sticker in the "You'll take a bullet if you don't make

"You'll have to carry me," replied Sticker ers from the enemy, and I have been "Lift him up, boys!" at length said Will "Merely going out." And then while a "Certainly: it is due your generosity that slight shade of regret passed over his brow; aided the pule hir through the arm of the a friend in New York, who acts as my se- "I am sorry, Will that I have done this, Indian, and it is to him that she should pay cret agent-noting the enemy's force, their for I am afraid of that traiterious Joe Robinher gratitude, and not to Willihasse. But manœuvers, and every change or new fea- son, as he may interiere with my present why does the white muiden grieve! Is it ture concerning them. I have managed thus plans, I am about setting out upon a secret for the brave young lover who is away, fight- far to send a person for the manuscript and mission to New York, yet, of you keep a ng the brave young love and in this manng the pattles of his chief!"

Charts that he makes out, and in this manstrict watch upon him, all will yet be well."

The slight, crimson glow overspreading ner bave succeeded in keeping Washington. And after pausing for a moment, as her features revealed the secret of her heart. posted in their movements. But the last at- though he would be assured of having omitis not all. My young triend has other very great adept in the art, and from the ment of his objects, he left his comrades who ares."

time of his leaving camp, I have neither were gathering thicker around him, and "Who has told you of this, Willihasse!" seen nor heard of him -- he has undoubtedly striding hastily along the puth landing to asked Mary, slightly embarrassed at the fallen a prisoner, yet I trust he has not been the nearest outpost, was soon lost to view curious knowledge her companion had dis- taken with the papers, for in that case it amid the overhanging bows that sheltered shrewdness and intellect, who might face a glided from view, ere Danham had left the danger and escape it through his wits, or, if group unobserved. In a careless yet cauoft is the sight. Willihasse's eye can all artifices should fail and he should faid tious manner, he went around to every man pierce through the darkness of night and himself in an ambuscade, to have the cour- stationed as sentry, and gave orders that read the workings of a mind. The man- age and wiry nerves to fight his way out." their new volunteer should not at any sacri-"I have the very man you have described. fice be allowed to leave the camp, as he was thize with her as they should-they miscal- a young woodsman, who e success in such suspected of being a spy in the employ of their enemies, and his departure would frusthe purity of her heart, she would meet with ... I am really overjoyed at hearing your trate the plans of Colonel James. This done, decision-but tell me his name that I may be returned to his quarters, and quietly being heeded. But we must return to Jee feebly struggling with the light of day, and slowly retreating to its durker abode to reslowly retreating to its durker abode to regain tresh v gor in a strong man the remaining us int."

-You do not know my paget. The InAt this moment a low, chuckling laugh some unpleasant disclosures regarding his dian is not comined to one locality-he is just outside the tent starsfed the party, and political copinions, had the effect of checkeverywhere, and hears everything. Even with one accord they leaped to their feet ing his naturally inquiring turn of mind. He at times when the cleud gathers deepest, and rushed outside-but there was no one stood aloof and watching the proceedings But I cannot remain longer-the maiden returned to their seats, with the impression and made himself known, the tory bent all the suni exclaimed:

"You must be saved Mary-you cannot further-but remain longer-the that they had been deceived by the sighing his energies in taking a minute observation further-but remember, should you need a of the wind among the trees overhead. The mend, and fall in finding me, do not be sur- trio had scarcely stepped inside the tent, cogle eyes until his absence placed a bar prised if Withharse should come to you, before the figure of a man emerged from to further attempts at curiosity. After Everything can be done—anything can be lying close to the ground, and after a fur- of guilty suspicion, he stole away from the live glance at objects near, stole noiseless by group, and lingering in camp a few moments, sable warrior, ided through the door, and from tree to tree until he was safely away, made his way towards one of the passes in a few moments had disappeared among The man was Joe Robinson the new volume that I d down the mountain side. Casting the intricate windings of the lorest path. teer.

Mary waited until he was gone, and then After Colonel James and his guests had of being unobserved he walked carelessly

"Thus far the Captain has been very ourteous towards me and I have at times ward over the more becalmed waters of the

"Can't go! why, what's the reason?" "There's a good many reasons!" "But there must be some mistake!" "No mistake at all-it's orders "

"Orders to keep me a prisoner in learner" "This is but a vain delusion. Captain Back one more would we conduct our to the bravest of Generals, the point was exclaimed the half irightened tory, while he broached, and the proposition made. "There ain't anybody to pass me to night." that any precipitancy would lower him in "Light Brigade."

The estimation of your suncle, and that be Within the tent of Colonel James were wishes executed, secretly, but with sureness nation. Joe turned slowly upon his heel, ing the one great object for which he strives, seated three men. One of them was the —there is no disguising the fact, that it is and sought to pass at another point, but a caution would promote him to guardagainst intrepid leader himsell—the other two were fraught with the most eminent danger. I ke about refus. I discouraged him, and at nightfull, he returned to camp.

"There is nothing that the leaders in the Nothing happened to disturb the machinaparting light and giving but a distant, pallid laugh, chided his niece upon ber unusual pair of we'll fitting breeches reached to his abstraction of mind, and taking his favorite knees, and black hose fastened at the knee "General Wayne will advise you further, ring the day attracted his attention. With towards a ragged leage of rocks, which during the day attracted his attention. With pipe and cane, passed through the Hall into by a soit legather strap, and shoes ornamenthe garden, and directed his way towards a nest clustering vineyard arbour, and sat down to the enjoyment of his own meditation to the enjoyment of his own meditation and the enjoyment of his own meditation are far more delicious and positive in taster.

The Newspaper Coverlid—How to assume that no sees or nament that noiseless, cautious step that ne well withdraw and if necessary, we will withdraw and if necessary, and some fine the wind of the same with the country of the armore delicious and soon gained the wind of the necessary, and a stripe of white, five or air, as thus carries off the armore delicious and positive in taster.

The Newspaper Coverlid—How to assume in emergency, he with the richest flowers here; and if necessary, and if own to the enjoyment of his own meditaions.

Long after the departure of the Major

Long after Long efter the departure of the Major body and anomacis. He was a major body and anomacis and the major body and a Mary sat by the open with a state of the cown, thus forming sized man with light hair and whiskers and piece of light rope from the bosom of his lace mantles, I cannot forgive the Queen paper to suggest a mode of keeping warm in papers, have more juice and spirit than her, grazing upon a grassy plat strayed a pet goat, white rs snow, and while he tossed top of his har floated a long, graceful plume, are certain of having found him, offer your time-worn oak that ran along the surface of red faced, jolly looking woman, I expected pet gost, white es snow, and while he tossed his head upwards, the fine tinkling of a bell hung at his need sounded through the air. This seemed out a mountful each to her thoughts, and searcely conscious of her own burrying down the way towards the way to way to way the way to way to

"Couldn't be surer if I saw him that with

"Then why wouldn't this be a good time given him by his superior, and retired from "That's just what I was tryin' to get at -but the question is, how is it goin' to be tain side towards their own encampment. "We can't take him now afere he wits with a half comical leer, which showed that After viewing him for a few moments he was perfectly aware of the joke he had "I s'pose I'll have to go myself, then, and let Grimms stay and take care of the boys;" "You'll start to-night!" "I guess so."

And with this the two separated-Joe to return to came, and 'Tom Miller to lay plans for following Henry Raymond. TO BE CONTINUED.

The Happy Calamity.

"I have lost my whole fortune," said erchant, as he returned one evening to his home; we can no longer keep our car-riage. We must leave this large house.— The children can no langer go to expensive day there is nothing I can call my own."

still rich in each other and our children .- silence. Money may pass away, but God has giver us a better treasure in those active hands and loving hearts."

"Dear father," said the children, "do not look so say we will help to get a living." - What you do, poor things" said he. "You shad see! you shall see!" answered new things bought, and I shall sell my Social Circle. And we would suggest that the basket, to be bruised open the barrel,great dollar

The heart of the husband and father, which had sunk within his bosom like a know of nothing that has a greater tendency stone, was lifted up. The sweet enthusiaem to rouse the mind into action or to elevate of the scene cheered him, and his nightly it more, than a well conducted Literary Soprayer was like the song of praise. ciety. It gives the young, and the old, the They left their stately house. The ser- rich and the poer, the same advantages of vants were discharged. Pictures and plate, improvement, and creates a social feeling rich carpets and furniture were sold; and she who had been the mistress of the man- which is very needful in most villages. ion shed no tears.

With the sid of his sens he cultivated vegetables for the warket. He viewed, with But we hope their tears are groundless. delight and astonishment, the economy of This ain't talking politics is it' Cause his wife, notioned as she had been in wealth, why -- we don't want to be styled strongand the efficiency which his daughters soon minded, if we are considered a fair amazonacquired under ber training. "The eldest one instructed in the housethe father.

the mother. "We never knew how many things we could do, when we lived in the great house," ef you were is my place! I couldn't est ing to the Scripture, shall be the first partial the same what would goe take. Square, princes of the foyal leansehold, who, according to the Scripture, shall be the first partial that valued established the first partial that the same way of the fronts.

There is mother way of keeping applies cainly the most economical of truth of any little bees."

"Yes," replied the fatl er, "and you make Economy as well as industry was strictly necessary was purchased. The eldest daughter became essistant teacher in a distin-guished female seminary, and the second took her place as instructress to the family. "We are now thriving and prosperous," said he: "shall we return to the city!"

"Th, no!" was the unanimous reply. "Let us remain," said the wife, "where we have found health and contentment." "Father," said the youngest, "all we children hope you are not going to be rich again; for then," she added, "we little ones were shot up in the nursery, and did not see much coon or mother. Now we all teaches us, and we learn to be industrious and useful. We were none of us happy when we were ich, and did not work. So. father, please not to be a rich man any more."-Mrs. Sigourney

An American lady who witnessed the earth under us. We shall not be disturbed; use, and in short, of knowing just the conpageantry of the meeting of the Royal I propose to solemnize your marriage here; dition of the whole lot at once. The shelves had to cut it off, or else steal the trap. families in this city, gives a full description the told them not to dismount, but to arof the scenerand of the great personages range themselves in due order—the gentleoverthrowing what advantage he had already strangers in the camp, and we cannot pass Are you willing to us dertake it—let the with a resolution of renewing his attempts bore large anger he is attempts and attempts and attempts bore large anger he is attempts and par graph: - > elegant looking man; his family are noted for their beauty. The Princess Olga is said to be the handsomest woman in Europe. www. was made, the union declared, and the storious stand firm on the ground, and the shelves are ready for apples.

>
> For long keeping, fruit should not be exmoir antique silks; a stripe of white, five or the poetry appended to the great event .- ples have gone to their dual packing. they The cash he inherits amounts to the gigansented to her. The Queen of Holland is a of new-papers. Soon after the advent of this most caltivated and elegant woman-still callly nights, fielding the extra covers too ing, the Emperor of France gave fitteen bousehold. To those who waited on him personally he gave each a gold watch and chain. To the Aid-de camp, Casar Berold- and the amount of all is three pounds only, it will also i jure the tree," ingen, appointed by the King, he gave buttons of poyx and diamond, which cost an American officers, there was an unusual to trust to much dudge as like a weasle. enormous s.m; and to Count Union, Manual bustle among the brigadesment. A stranger back, for he would dodge as like a weasle. echal de in Coun, he gave a small-box with enormous som; and to Count Urkult, Maran immerse diamond in the centre.

of stupefaction, as she was holding his aching head in both hands.

'Yes, I suppose co,' was the reply. 'Well, then,' said she, 'I came home drunk last night, and ought to be ashamed of my-

OF A jilled chemist finds love to be com-and two of affection.

"Dear Lesband," said the wife, "we are we have ventured to break the prolonged stance, to prevent the fruit from being brain bidding it, MUST BE MADE GO D." Our town is not yet ace from the influ-ence of intexicating drinks. Yet our "Carson League" still lives, and success seems and a piece of rope to let down the basket to be ours. And with hope we look forward us often us it is tilled. Thus equipped, the several voices. "It is a pity if we have been to school for nothing. How can the father of eight children be paor! We shall work, and make you rich again."

"I shall help," said the younger girl.

The ladies of Belmont and vicinity have laid in by the hand laid in by the hand several voices. "It is a pity if we have been coming sun reveals the bright vault of hea- dropping all others upon the ground, to be of the world. other villages (who have not strendy,) get up such associations during the winter. We among those of different circumstances; Everything seems to be dall in the way "Pay every debt," said she; let no one of business matters. We suppose it is on offer th;ough us, and we may be happy." account of the scarcity of money. Business He rested a neat cottage and a small men seem to wear anxious looks, as if some iece of ground, a few miles from the city. long peut up calamity was about to descend like to avalanche and bury them forever.

HASTY. which they found could be disposed of to crane's neck-accontered with a swallow. the trost, and covered close.

Every one was at her post, busy and cheer- "Wal, dog on it, I don't know," said he, in a piece of soil paper, as oranges and lemful. The litt'e cottage was like a bee-hive. casting his eye down the long and seeming one are put up, and put them in boxes or business." "I never emoved such health before," said by endiess array of frilandeaux, cutellets, kegs of not more than a bashel each, and ragouls, and other "kick shaws" on the bill then they will open in a dry time, when 67 Don't you think, said a brother law-a great deal better here. You call us your thunder, of I wasn't to have another meal of virtles in a coon's age " just such honey as my heart delights to feed the waiter. ... keep in barrels or boxes. The plan is to 65 Politeness, the comenter of friend-on." West Square, your beout right, I reckon. build in t e truit cellur a tier of shelves, say ship, and souther of enemities, is nowhere observed; nothing was wasted; nothing un- biled vittles. You ax all the same, they high asked on the edges, the shelves about as in family circles, in near and dear con-

Novel Marriage Ceremony.

d scovered six young persons-three male made of 12 or 14 feet boards, will hold from information that Mr. Ten Brock has offered the newspapers in use on my three beds, prevent rabbits from backing fruit trees, but | Experiments show app as to be equal to The papers can be spread loosely, over-lap- The next we find in the Valey Farmer, rel New Yorker. ping one snother, although for convenience from B. A. Rives: I have posted the edges together. How trifling is the cost, and now easily obtained? A pound or two of old nevespapers can be if you think proper, to place my name at up a hundred trees in two hours," the pottom of this communication.

S. Y. A. L. posed of fitteen parts of gold, three of fame, WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 15, 18571

The children can no longer go to expensive be negligent of her old friend the Chronicia, which purpose baskets should be provided Union newspaper and a Cabinet officer stood But as we are termed a "Fair Amezonian," with a lining of cloth, or other soft subsed against the sides. Next, the picker should have a tree-ladder, that will enable him to reach the fruit without shaking it off. when intemperance shall cease to be; and finit-gatherer can go to his work, selecting mumbered among the things that were. And unity such apples as are sound, and if to put are as fair as those of Elden, but they must,

> If apples are to be kept in barrels, which the spleudor of the fairest sunlight, so will is the most common way, they should be the wrong done to another pursue the soul organized a Literary Society, called the laid in by the hand, and not poured from in the hour of prosperity. or against each other. They should be dry and clean when put up, and after standing mind than discontent, rendering it more oca few weeks, will have gone through the copied about the evil that disquiets it than first sweating process, and be ready for final packing. This should be done with the same carefulness as the first, hoking closely, for the development of any rot or imperfection that escaped notice in the first instance. They should also keep children to amuse it has been demonstrated that app es kept best in barrels that have been before esed for salt. So that if old saft barrels cannot be readily obtained, common flour barrels can be made to answer the same purpose, by being first drenched with salt water. In all cases, the barrels or boxes must be very dry when the fruit is put up; and it old salt bar rels are used, they should be well washed, to take out the excess of salt. When the up- says she feels as though she was taking ples are reparked, the inside of the barrels should be lined with heavy packing paper, as the operation lasts. or a thin coating of clean dried straw, to keep the fruit from being bruised by preshold, and also assisted the youngerchildren; A Faxey Dixner .-- A tall, long-legged aure, as well as to absorb any little mo sless and less every time they are told, just besides, they executed various works, which Hoosier, from Jasper county, Indians, dis. ture arising from it. Then the barrels should like the age of a woman !-Punch. they had learned as accomplishments, but tinguished by a little head perched on a be placed in a dry, siry collar, scenre from alvantage. They embroidered with taste tailed cost, and pastaloons that refused to This process will involve some labor, but some of the ornamental parts of female ap- be coaxed down to the ankles-boots shin- it is labor that will pay; and no farmer, who self severally unequalled, is almost sure to parel, which were readily sold to a mering with tallow, and hat that scorned over clant of the city.

The advantage of the city of the c They cultivated flowers, sent bouquets to market in the cart that conveyed the vegetables; they plaited straw, they painted dinary, and asked by a servant what he would have:

| A good ohl Quaker may after research this will pay well. For very choice frait, and the extravagant varies of a store-that is desired to be kept long and well, we keeper as long as her patience would allow, would take each apple by itself, and wrap it said to him. Friend, what a pity it is a sin said to him. They cultivated flowers, sent bouquets to land House last week, to get what he called this. In some cases, even more pains that a good oil Quaker lady after listenvariety, while he despaired of grapping with that is a farmer king, and his queen and Jim Pierson is the greatest har of a lawyer in winter, that we have seen practised, and other lawyer on the circuit." "Wouldn't you like some soup!" asked on some accounts think it better than to Bring on your soun, and then Fil pitch into two feet wide, with side strips six in hes so much required and so frequenty outraged say, and its hard choosin'—so I'll jest try one plate through the lot; I will, of I bust!" 20 inches apart, and of such length as will nections it is continually abandoned, and contain what fruit is to be put on. The shelves may be set against the wall of the destroyed and with them much of its happicellar or out in open space, as is most con- news. Rev. Charles Brooks, in his interesting history of Medford, gives the particulars of a them, and being more accessible to hight. nove marriage ceremony performed in that the fruit can be better inspected from time Spicil, says, that Ten Brocck has engaged town in 1780, by Thes Brooks, Esq., who to time. We have seen excellent arrange. Fortham for his jackey next summer. It acquired great popularity as one of the Marrying Justices, of the perion.—One day, while riding on horseback to Woburn, he and three female-riding on horseback to-wards him. He guessed their errand; and The chief advantages of this plan are, three year-aid. live together, and sister, who loves us, they guessed that the cocked but, bush wig that the fair can be stored away at one and silver buckles approaching them must where it is to temain. By partitions, easily belong to "the squire." Both part es stopped. Tre bridegroom announced his wishes, is set in, the fruit of each tree can be kept by how did you lose your dager?"

Lesify then, as the winter ripening or decay Easily enough, said Billy. and the squire replied thus: "My young friends, we are here in the midst of this lofty of the shelf, pick over and lay book the The Crowned Heads at Stuttgardt. forest, upon an unfrequented road, with Goo's clear sky over us, and this green selecting the most forward for immediate forest, upon an unfrequented road, with fruit, taking out any that is going to decay, where mine was." other. This being done, he placed his horse put in sticks to rest the hoards upon; then "The Emperor of France wears red pants so as to be directly in front of the bride and lay in the hed boards, nall on the side strips, pay it."

—has short legs; they remind me of a speech bridegroom. Then taking off his but he and drive the uprights so as to hold them "Well" once made about his legs. I dare say you began his prayer; and report says that he close; factor the upper end of the unrights a man that would be sorry; but if you are remember it. The Emperor of Russia is an was "gifted in prayer," and that on this oc- to the joist overhead, and let the hottoms sorrier than I ame I'll quit."

tin, of London, is being put in possession oare far more delicious and positive in taste, wretchedly poor all his preceeding life. than those which have their spirit faded onof them by too much ventilation. Thus during the approaching cell n ghts? It was those kept open; therefore, for late keeping. Holiness, with their congratulations. As very handsome, though she has a grandson. She speaks English perfectly, and is per- a year ago, I took off a weighty coverlid and fruit trees, give the body of the young tree. History and to prevent cabbits from birking your fruit trees, give the body of the young tree. haps the most accomplished woman in Europe. In the afternoon the Emperor and Empress of Russia left here. The French Emperor staid till the next day. On leaving, the Emperor of France gave filtern nonnce it effectual. I use it on three beds bark, and readers them much more thrifty. Transps of simil size have double the nuhousand france to the poor, and twenty in my house, and as nothing can be cheap- than they would be odier vise. This simple tritions matter the large ones have. thousand trance to the servants of the King's er, I feel nathorized to recommend it for recipe will be of vast value to the farmers. Ratabagose is the only roof that increases general use. I had the curiosity to weigh in many parts of the West. Greating will in nutritionsness as it increases in size.

A pound or two of ald newspapers can be procured for four cents a pound, and if spread around the hody of the tree, commencing their tretting speed if teen or twenty sec-A pound or two of the newspapers. An property of the plane of the plan time, I attach my initials, authorizing you, can be so quick y done-one per on can tie set as far backward as convenient, on the Rebellion.

The Chicago Times (Dem.) returns the fire of the Washington Union promptly and energetically. It informs the Central Organ that it is not the Democratic partythat Buchanan is not the Democratic party: that Douglas has a say in what the Democracy shall do in regard to Kansas. We

"If the person conducting the Union were a cane man he would know that Mr. Buchanan would never have been President, nor any f his Cabinet now in office, had the Democratic party in 1855 hinted at the IWHOLE NO 1007. possibility of the people of Kansas being denied a vote on their constitution! and yet the Washington Union, in its issues of the BELMONT, O, Nov. 22, 1857. Chapter on Keeping Winter Apples 18th, 19th, and 20th inst., can hardly find Dear Chronicle: We again take our pen for the purpose of enjoying a chart through your most excellent paper. It has been so long since we have enjoyed this pleasure that we hardly know how to begin.

For awhile Belmont seemed to be "won-For awhile Belmont seemed to be "won- writing, is to say a few words about gather- party stands pl-dged in every hamlet in the derful" literary. But all at once she has come to a stand-atill position, and seems to movement in picking from the trees, for hand that pledge, though a constitution, and that pledge, though a > (Snooks' wife loves to make bread, because it cleans her hands so beautifully.

as a dark cloud passing away before the up for keeping, to lay in his basket, and in the end, be put to proof in the workshops picked up for feeding to stock, or other-it's As the shadow follows the body in fir Nothing casts a denser cloud over the the means of removing it.

OFPu ch says that every family ought to keep a kitten to amuse the children .-

Franches of THE AGE .-- A Manchester centleman advertises "for a penny paper, the day after publication, at half-price!"- clib roform, and remains insensable as long PROTERES FOR ALL AGES .- Sorrows grow

877 When a Bultimore fedy is kissed, she

65 The man who thinks his wife, his haby, his house, his horse, his dog, and him-

£2300, or $11,500 for Shirmich T's superb

WOCLDN'T STEAL THE TRAF. - Billy,

'I suppose you did, but how!' 'I guess you'd a lost your'n if it had been That don't answer my question!"

Well, if you must know, said Billy, 'I 63 They tell a story about a Yankee

"Well," said the tailor, "I took you for papal chair, the anchassadors of the several

Tom B. A. Rives:

Oven-neadency Houses - A writer in their no old newspapers in strice filtern the N. E. Parmer, who is a blacksmith to word feet, with high heel caulks, so as to lot them roll over as soon at possible. On (The only things you can safely put the hind feet, the heel caulk is low and the off until to-morrow are other as and vice. toe-camb high and projecting forward. Hor-